'Stop Gibson!' Is Eagle Cry

When the Newark Eagles square off against the champion Homestead Grays in their doubleheader at Ebbets Field, Sunday, Sept. 6, the result of the games will have a vital bearing on the Negro baseball championship. At present the Eagles are in third place in the National Negro League, with the Grays out in front of the parade.

The Eagles are out to beat out their Homestead rivals this year.
The Grays are the Yankees of the Negro loop and are seeking their seventh straight title.

If they are going to capture the championship the Eagles must find a way to stop Josh Gibson. Gibson averages 45 homers a season and has a lifetime mark of .349. He's one of the few batsmen ever to hit a ball into the left field bleachers at the Yankee Stadium.

The doubleheader a week from Sunday will be the first time two crack Negro teams have swung into action at Ebbets Field since 1935 when the Newark club, then known as the Brooklyn Eagles, played at the home park of the Dodgers.
